

Subject Statements of Intent

English	To have an appreciation of a wide range of literature.	To communicate ideas and opinions effectively through spoken and written language.
Maths	To recall mathematical facts and develop fluency with mental and written methods across all four operations.	To reason mathematically, applying skills and knowledge to solve a wide range of problems.
Science	To know about key areas and individuals in biology, chemistry and physics.	To be able to plan, carry out and draw conclusions from investigations in these areas.
History	To know how key historical events and periods are connected.	To be able to ask and answer questions through the critical analysis of a variety of sources.
Geography	To know why the Earth is like it is today, how it's changed in the past and how it's changing for the future.	To be able to navigate successfully, making use of locational knowledge.
RE	To know about a number of faiths/religions and be able to name specific acts of worship and celebrations linked to each.	To ask questions to deepen overall understanding of different faiths and respect people of different faiths.
Art and Design	To know about a wide variety of artistic techniques, tools and artists, and appreciate the value of art in society.	To have experimented with a wide range of artistic techniques and artistic styles, and be able to express ideas competently and confidently.
Music	To be able to talk knowledgeably about music.	To confidently take part in musical events, as performer, composer and listener.
Computing	To be able to use a range of devices and programs confidently, safely and for a clear purpose.
Design and Technology	To know of key designers and engineers, and the components of a healthy diet.	To be able to use a wide variety of tools to create a planned outcome which solves a problem.
PE	To develop a good level of fitness and skills through a range of activities.	To develop a life-long positivity towards being active, competitive and personal challenge.
PSHE	To be able to take good decisions about one's own health, wellbeing and safety.
French	To know about French culture.	To be able to communicate effectively with someone in French.